PRESS RELEASE

Shri. Ravi Sharma appointed as the Chairperson of Board of Governors of IIIT Una (HP)

A well-known corporate leader, a distinguished alumnus of IIT Roorkee and a passionate philanthropist on a mission of 'Spreading Goodness', Shri. Ravi Sharma has been appointed as the Chairperson of the Board of Governors (BoG) of Indian Institute of Information Technology, Una, Himachal Pradesh.

Popularly known as the business transformation expert and a social change catalyst, Ravi Sharma has been appointed for three years from August 25, 2023 by the Hon'ble President of India, in her capacity as the visitor of the institute.

At present, he is the President of IIT Alumni Council and Chairman of Telecom Equipment Manufacturers Association of India (TEMA). He is also the Chairman of Prama Jyoti Foundation and its flagship program Mission Chetna and a trustee of Subodhanand Foundation. He also has an outstanding professional track record of leading India's largest corporations in the INDIAN Power & Telecom industry as CEO in the past.

He has been the recipient of many awards including the "Distinguished Alumni Award" by IIT Roorkee.

Besides his business acumen and philanthropic spirit, he has a creative instinct also. In 2015, Times Music India launched his first music album "Moonlight Whispers", with top Indian singers giving voice to his compositions. Inspired by Late Sri Harivansh Rai Bacchan, he has written numerous poems in Hindi. He is also the chief patron of The Great Indian Film and Literature Festival (GIFLIF).

Ravi Sharma is a supporter of quality education and a life of goodness. He believes in transforming lives and society by creating a world of goodness through a three-way process of Identify-Appreciate-Inspire. He also believes that information technology has a huge impact in changing lives and aspires to develop the institute into an epitome of top-notch education in India.
